Student Council

Student Council is formed on the basis of merit. Students who top the merit list in each year in arts and commerce become representative at the Student Council. The student obtaining the highest marks in second year in arts and commerce becomes the General Secretary. The one who obtains second highest marks in merit in the remaining stream becomes Vice General Secretary at the Student Council. Similarly, one each from the first-year merit becomes Cultural and Sports Secretaries. The remaining merit students become Members at the Council.
